WORKING WITH MWM

MWM has provided us with materials and opportunities to learn from other members activities. We are grateful for the MWM network and STEM Connector.

The STEM fields can drive our economy going forward. When women and girls show a spark of interest in those areas, we owe it to them—and to ourselves—to nurture that spark into a flame. Deloitte is committed to making an impact by helping develop and nurture this enormous wealth of talent through our multiple mentoring initiatives.
